"In these tough economic times, the size of county government needs to better adjust in proportion with it's decline of tax revenue and can't keep asking for more money from families who are maxed out" said Richard Snelgrove, small business owner & county council candidate. If elected, Snelgrove will be the only business owner on the 9 member Salt Lake County Council.

Snelgrove is the founder & President of Snelgrove Travel Center & USATravelMart, which recently celebrated it's 20th anniversary. The company has a staff of 14 and sells cruises and vacations via several web sites. It also has a retail location in Layton.

Snelgrove served as Chairman of the Utah Republican Party and several times as a Republican National Delegate & Presidential Elector in the Electoral College. His volunteer service also includes service as a Boy Scout leader & Jr. Jazz coach. Snelgrove speaks fluent Spanish & is volunteer English Teacher.

"The thriftiness of a small business owner are needed on the county council" said Snelgrove. He is a graduate of the University of Utah. Richard & his wife JoLynn are the parents of 4 children.
